Notices

Friday Music Recital Series Our Friday music recital series begins on the 9th September with Ashley Wagner playing César Franck's most substantial organ work, the Grand Pièce Symphonique. Although there are organ recitals in this series, we also welcome back instrumentalists, including students from the Royal Birmingham Conservatoire. Recitals take place on the second and fourth Fridays of each month.

Guided Tours There are Heritage Guided Tours lasting 30 minutes every Monday at 1230 (except 29 August) and Divine Beauty Tours starting in September on Wednesdays at 1130. If you would like to be a tour guide, please contact Jane McArdle at jane.mcardle@birminghamcathedral.com.

Harvest Festival We will be celebrating Harvest Festival on Sunday 18 September. Following the 11am Eucharist there will be an opportunity to eat, talk and reflect together in Cathedral Square in a Marquee. We will be providing food and will also be grateful for any contributions to the meal.

If you would like to attend, please email enquiries@birminghamcathedral.com (and please let us know if you are planning to contribute to the meal).

Our Harvest Charities will be Lets Feed Brum and Doctors Without Borders.

RSCM 'Come and Sing' Evensong We are very pleased to welcome the RSCM for a 'Come and Sing' Evensong on Saturday 24 September. The service is at 1530 in the cathedral, with a rehearsal for participants 1300–1500. If you would like to join the choir that will be assembled for this service, please book your place by emailing music@moseleychurch.org.uk before 5 September and bring £3 cash on the day – this goes to the RSCM to help defray costs and support their work. Please note that children under 18 must be accompanied by a supervising adult. The service itself will be open to the public and everyone is welcome to attend (no booking required).

Community Day Cathedral Community Day will be on Sunday 2 October. Following on from last year, we will be focusing on how we grow and flourish as individuals and a community, and how we live out our faith in the world and in the church. Canon Andy is assembling a small group to help plan the day. if you would like to be part of this, please email enquiries@birminghamcathedral.com.

LOUDfence From Monday 3 to Sunday 9 October, the cathedral will be hosting a LOUDfence. Ribbons will be tied to the railings along Colmore Row and inside the cathedral as a sign of visible solidarity with all those who have suffered abuse. LOUDfence is survivor-led, and we are pleased to be able to provide a place for it to happen in central Birmingham. More details are on the website <https://birminghamcathedral.com/event/loudfence/> Please pray for this. There are many opportunities to be involved including joining the Mothers Union in knitting ribbons, joining the events on trauma and spirituality with Professor Gillian Ahlgren on Thursday 6 October, and with our Safeguarding Sunday on Sunday 9 October.

Safeguarding If you have an urgent concern for the safety of yourself or someone else, call 999. The cathedral community seeks to be safe and welcoming to everyone. If you need to contact someone with a safeguarding concern, please call our Cathedral Safeguarding Officer, Steph Haynes, on 07717 205215 or Deputy Safeguarding Officer, Anna Pitt, on 07769 216890; their details are also on posters at the back of the cathedral.
